About Us

Serving authentic and original dishes is our mission at Special Pho and Bánh Mi Vietnamese Restaurant. Executive chef Van Hong, born in Saigon, Vietnam, takes his life experience and brings them to you. Hong immigrated to the US in his teens where he learned how to cook homestyle Vietnamese food from his mom and grandmother. Now he has over twenty years of experience in the industry with a unique style in his cuisine. He believes the fundamental step in his special dishes is using fresh ingredients and a homemade style. The methods that pass on through his generation has a "no short cut" mindset where food preparation is key. For example, our soup base needs to be slow cooked for eight hours before we can present it in your bowl and our Bánh Mi (Vietnamese hoagie) sauce and spread remains homemade. Take a tour with our traditional take on Vietnamese cuisine where the taste is great and you feel like you've been brought right into in Saigon, Vietnam.
